Q: According to Attachment J, the Pricing Sheet, you are seeking material pricing. Commodities are difficult to price out with any degree of future accuracy. What is your policy, as I see in the RFP the contract is anticipated to last two years?

A: Typically we expect contractors to hold their price for the entire term. However, due to the volatile market, we understand this can be difficult. We may be willing, with reasonable justification (manufacturer notification on letterhead or similar) to review in consideration of proposed price increase on materials only.
