What is Moving to Work (MTW)?

MTW is a federal program that provides 39 public housing authorities with the flexibility to use federal resources (Public Housing and Housing Choice Vouchers) more efficiently to develop adaptive, community-specific approaches to solving local housing challenges. KCHA has participated since 2003.

What goals and activities does KCHA pursue under MTW?

The MTW Plan outlines the goals and activities that KCHA will pursue in 2025, including:

Promote Economic Independence
& Self-Sufficiency

Support Resident Health,
Stability and Well-Being

Partnerships to Address Homelessness

Streamline
Program
Operations

Deepen
Educational Partnerships

Invest in Physical
Improvements to
KCHA's Housing
Inventory
