Community Events

ParentMap's free events calendar lists simple, family-friendly things to do all month long, including story times, outdoor activities, museum days, festivals, and more. In February, families can also find many Black History Month events such as exhibits, tours, and community celebrations that honor Black history and culture. It is an easy way to find free activities every day.

Know Your Rights

Everyone has rights, and it helps to know them before you need them.

The ACLU of Washington offers free, easy-to-read guides on what to do if you're stopped by police, approached by immigration agents, attending a protest, or navigating your rights at school or in public spaces. You can download wallet cards, student resources, and other tools to help you stay informed and prepared.

Learn more at the ACLU of Washington's Know Your Rights page.
